Conflicts

- If you have a conflict, sibling or child playing please add the team so you won't get assigned to that team
- Click on Add New Game Conflict

The screenshot shows the GameOfficials.net website interface. The page title is "GameOfficials.net" with the tagline "FASTER. EASIER. SMARTER.". The user is logged in as "User: mhilger". The page is titled "OFFICIALS PREFERENCES - MERRY HILGER".

The "Game / Team Conflicts" section is highlighted. It contains a table with columns: League, Team, Age, Level, Gender, Notes, and Posted. The table is currently empty, with the text "No Game Conflicts Defined" in the center. A red arrow points to a button labeled "Add New Game Conflict".

Below the conflicts section is the "League / Tournament Preferences" section. It contains a table with columns: League, Dates, and Description. The table lists various leagues and their dates, with checkboxes in the "League" column.

Name in Game Officials

- If you change your name to appear differently than we are accustomed to we will not know who you are
- Changing from William to Bill is fine
- Changing to a nickname of “Skip” is NOT Okay
- You WILL be passed over for games if you change your name as we will not know who you are.
- Changing your name for one assigner, changes it for all

Reporting scores

- Click on After Games under Personal Info
- Click on the game number
- Answer all the questions there
  - 98% of the time the answers will all be no
  - The first question is “Were the officials at the game DIFFERENT than the ones listed above” Unless you had someone not show up or send someone in their place the answer is no. If someone did not show up you should be calling Diana or Merry

Reporting score

- You need to report the score on all games. Center should be doing this.
- If someone does not show up please email Merry otherwise the person that did not show up will get paid
